

Botanical Gardens St. Louis Hills and Highlights (With St. Louis Guide Linda Koenig)

Saturday May 12, 2012
$99.00

Our tour begins in St. Louis with a brief tour of the 1834 Cathedral Basilica, the oldest cathedral west of the Mississippi. Then we visit the world-renown Missouri Botanical Gardens at the height of its annual glory. Linda Koenig, a Master Gardener at the Garden, will do a walking plant/sculpture tour. If you prefer, you may wander the Garden on your own, visit the gift shop or sit on the patio. Lunch is included on the St. Louis "Hill" at Lorenzo's Trattoria. After lunch, you may purchase delicious baked goods at Missouri Baking Co., and /or marvelous sausages and chesses at Volpi's. Then we will visit St. Ambrose Church; learn to play bocce at Milo's Tavern and shop for Italian edibles at DeGregorio's Market. We then visit the "Cathedral of the Americas", Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis to see the largest collection of mosaics in the world under one roof. Our tour concludes with a stop to see the World famous Clydesdale Horses in the original stables. We will not tour the brewery, as time will not permit before we return home. Your tour cost includes all included sightseeing and admission fees, lunch meal, St. Louis step-on-guide, deluxe motor coach transportation, and professional tour manager.
