

Scott Air Force Base

and

Eckerts Country Store & Farm

(With St. Louis Guide Linda Koenig)

Tuesday June 12, 2012

$97.00

Today we visit Scott Air Force Base. Scott AFB occupies nearly 4,000 acres, and is home to almost 10,000 military and civilian personnel. The base serves as the center of the U.S. Air Force Mobility Command. We will be given an interesting tour of the base, after which we will enjoy lunch at the Scott Officers Club.

We will spend the afternoon visiting Eckert's Country Store and Farms. We will be treated to a lively cooking demonstration, and then an interesting container gardening demonstration. Afterwards, there will be plenty of time to shop for baked goods, jams and other treats in the store and beautiful plants in the garden center. Hopefully, we'll be at Eckert's at the height of the fresh strawberry, asparagus and rhubarb season. Of course, it's always the season for ice cream at Eckert's ice cream stand! Time permitting, we will drive through the beautiful campus of Our Lady of the Snows, and stop to visit their interesting chapel. Your tour includes all included sightseeing and admission fees, lunch meal, Eckert's cooking and gardening demonstration fees, deluxe motor coach transportation, and professional tour manager.
