

The Kosher Konnection

(With St. Louis Guide Linda Koenig)

Friday, September 28, 2012

$98.00

This is a tour that you are sure to remember for a long time, whatever your religious background. Linda Koenig will start by giving us a tour of Temple Israel. Learn about synagogues, rabbis and the Torah scrolls. We will see the six-ton sculptured alter wall, full of Jewish symbols from the book of Exodus. We will have lunch at Simon Kohn's Kosher Deli and Meat Market. See a whole market full kosher products and baked goods. Purchase some if you want. We will enjoy a traditional Jewish deli lunch here. Linda will explain the concept of "Kosher" and the different bagels and breads. Next, we visit and tour the St. Louis Holocaust Museum. Learn more about what happened to six million Jews and five million other civilians at the hands of the Nazis during WWII. Linda's husband, Jerry Koenig will talk about his family's personal experiences during WW II in Nazi-occupied Poland. Later in the day, we will visit two Jewish Cemeteries. One is the smallest Jewish Cemetery in the U.S., Ohave Shalom, where only Holocaust survivors are buried. We will see the inspiring monument there to all victims of the Holocaust. The second Jewish Cemetery is Chased Shell Meth, where the notorious Illinois gangster, Shacna Itzik Birger, is buried. We know him better by the name, Charlie Birger, the last man hanged in Illinois on April 19, 1928, in Benton, IL. Your tour cost includes all included sightseeing and admission fees, lunch meal, St. Louis step-on-guide, deluxe motor coach transportation, and professional tour manager.
